ASHBROOK IS NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS ON 277TH BALLOT FRIDAY MORNING

Licking County Man Receives 161 Votes or 37 More Than Necessary, Thus Ending Long Contest at New Philadelphia--Tuscarawas Led the Way and Coshocton and Holmes Quickly Followed.

(By Wire from Staff Correspondent.)
New Philadelphia, June 8.—On the 277th ballot at 10:30 o'clock this morning, Hon. Wm. A. Ashbrook of Licking county, was nominated for Congress by the Seventeenth District Democratic convention. Thus ended one of the most notable conventions in the history of the district.

When the convention opened this morning, the first five ballots showed no change from last night, but on the 277th ballot Licking county led off with 65 votes for Ashbrook. Then came the break. Tuscarawas followed by casting 40 votes for Ashbrook, 19 for Hurst and 5 for Wertz. Coshocton got on the band wagon by giving 30 votes to Ashbrook and 9 to Wertz, and Holmes clinched the matter by casting 26 votes for the Licking county man.

Licking 65
Tuscarawas 40 5 19
Coshocton 30 9
Holmes 26

As soon as the result was known and the delegates realized that their long, wearisome work was at an end, pandemonium reigned in the convention hall for a few minutes and the Licking county leaders were overwhelmed with congratulations. Upon motion of Mr. Booth of Wayne county, the nomination was made unanimous. The chairman appointed a committee consisting of the chairman of each delegation to wait upon Mr. Ashbrook and escort him to the convention hall. At 11 o'clock Mr. Ashbrook arrived and in a splendid speech thanked the convention for the honor that had been conferred upon him.

JOHNSTOWN OVERJOYED.
Johnstown, O., June 8.—The news from New Philadelphia telephoned from the Advocate office this morning spread over town very quickly and created much enthusiasm throughout the village. Mr. Ashbrook is known by every man, woman and child here and the whole town is uniting in expressing pleasure over Mr. Ashbrook's nomination for Congress. The nominee will be given a warm reception when he returns home from eastern Ohio tonight.

NEWS IN NEWARK.
Ten minutes after the final ballot had been taken in the convention hall at New Philadelphia Friday morning, the Advocate posted a bulletin announcing that William A. Ashbrook had been nominated and in an incredibly short time the news spread over the entire city. Licking county's victory was received with expressions of pleasure on every hand and from the nature of the favorable comments made on the convention's work. It is assured that Mr. Ashbrook, the nominee, will be given a most cordial reception by his many friends here upon his return from New Philadelphia.

ECHO OF CONVENTION.
New Philadelphia, O., June 8.—At 9 o'clock this morning the delegates who since last Wednesday have been trying to nominate a Democratic Congressional candidate in the Seventeenth Ohio district, again assembled to continue the effort to effect a nomination. The intense heat and the excitement of the occasion are having a wearing effect upon the delegates and the hope is unanimous that the struggle will end today.

As far away from a nomination as when it cast its first ballot the Seventeenth District Democratic Convention last night adjourned until this morning. It had voted 271 times without result on the "question of making" a candidate, and in addition had turned down propositions to take the convention to every other county in the district. Coshocton, Holmes and Wayne voted to take the convention to Newark on July 4, but the proposition was opposed by the Licking and Tuscarawas delegations.

On the last ballot last night Coshocton and Holmes county did not vote, declaring that it was of no avail until the larger counties showed a disposition to make a nomination. The result of that ballot was: Ashbrook of Licking, 65; Hurst of Tuscarawas, 64; and Wertz of Wayne, 53. It requires 124 to carry the convention.

Ashbrook and Hurst worked together all through the day to prevent an adjournment and to keep out dark horses, although in this last task they had the co-operation of Wertz of Wayne. The last named candidate recognized that as long as the two larger counties kept their favorites before the convention his efforts would be ineffectual, and he strove to break up the combination.

Throughout the day the chances seemed to favor Ashbrook, but nothing came of the rosy prospects. At one time it looked as if Hurst, who made no headway, was about to throw his votes to the Licking county man, but after a delegation meeting a decision was arrived at to continue in the contest until the end.

During the recess last night the Holmes delegation, which was all along for Wertz, decided to force a nomination if possible. To that end it was resolved to caucus to vote for both Ashbrook and Hurst, and give Coshocton county a chance to end the fight. The Coshocton crowd thereupon caucused and resolved not to take any decisive action last night, dividing its 39 votes equally between the three leading candidates, when not complementing some favored son of Holmes county.

Motions were made to take the convention to Newark, Millersburg, Wooster, Coshocton, and Orrville, but all of them were voted down by the Tuscarawas and Licking delegations. After Holmes had voted for all of the candidates it asked to be excused from further balloting, Chairman Olmstead asserting that it was a waste of time. Permission was not granted, but the delegation went ahead and refused to vote any longer. This condition being reached the two large counties decided to quit for the night.

The outlook is favorable to the Licking county candidate, who has the call over Hurst in Coshocton county. The Wertz following would sooner go to him than to Hurst, and this is also a strong point in his favor.

Several times there were threatened breaks. Holmes county retired, and returning, voted for Wertz. Coshocton declined to follow suit. Then Holmes went to Ashbrook, putting him close to the nomination. Coshocton asked leave to retire. This was on the 115th ballot. Excitement ran high when the delegates returned and Chairman Mannors cast the 39 votes of the county to the Licking county man and nominated him for the time being.

It was only a bluff, though, for Chairman Stillwell of the Holmes delegation, promptly changed the vote of that county and plucked the prize away, leaving Ashbrook 14 short of a nomination. It also transpired that the vote of Coshocton would have been challenged and that 10 delegates would have voted for Wertz. Then came the play of the Ashbrook people to get Hurst to retire.

It got as far as the summoning of the Tuscarawas delegates in a special session, where the matter was put up squarely to the candidate. He decided to remain in the race.

During this interim a movement was launched to take the convention to another city. It was sprung by Holmes.

TWO BANKRUPTS.

She Says That She Was to be Allowed
$40,000 Per Year for Her
Living Expenses.

Columbus, O., June 8.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick's deposition taken at the Ohio Penitentiary in the suit brought by the Jutt heirs of Pittsburgh against Bankers Friend and Heston of that city, says she first met Friend in 1901, and since then had visited him at Atlantic City, New York and Pittsburgh. She told Friend of the deposit of $500,000 worth of "securities" with Ira Reynolds in Cleveland, and exhibited certificates showing the deposit had been made. She alleges it was arranged that Friend was to aid her trustee and dispose of the "securities." He loaned her money amounting to $251,000, but took her notes for $784,000. The "securities" deposited with Reynolds, were to be turned over to Friend. She claims he was to allow her $40,000 yearly for living expenses.

REBATES BY RAILROADS

Practice Ceased When Community of Interests Plan Was Launched.

ADMISSION OF JAMES M'CREA

Testifies the Pennsylvania Company
Has Concluded the Use of Private Cars is Unwise—Chief Clerk Aiken and Others Before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Philadelphia, June 8.—Before the interstate commerce commission S. F. Potter, president of the Donohue Coal and Coke Company, whose operations are located in Westmoreland county, charged that the Pennsylvania railroad had practiced gross discrimination in the distribution of cars to his company.

Joseph K. Aiken, chief clerk to A. G. Mitchell, superintendent of the Monongahela river division of the Pennsylvania railroad, admitted owning stock in numerous coal companies, some of which was given to him, while for the other shares he paid a privilege price.

Light was shed on motives leading to abolition of freight rebates by the railroads when James M'Creia, first vice president of the Pennsylvania company, which operates the Pennsylvania railroad lines west of Pittsburgh, appeared as a witness before the interstate commerce commission. Mr. M'Creia surprised the commissioners and their counsel by announcing that for nearly two years and up to the time of President Cassatt's departure for Europe the board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad, of which he is a member, had been considering means for eliminating the private car from the lines of the company. He declared the company had concluded that the use of these cars was unwise.

Towards the conclusion of his testimony Attorney Glasgow asked Mr. M'Creia when President Cassatt decided to stop rebating. "Just as soon as he got control of the Pennsylvania railroad; that was in 1889," said Mr. M'Creia. "At the time the community of interest plan was adopted, was it not?" was Mr. Glasgow's next question. Mr. M'Creia was not certain as to that. He then entered into a lengthy explanation of the rebate system and declared that the directors of other roads were pleased with the idea of abolishing it when the subject was brought to their attention. He said he thought it questionable if rebating would have been voluntarily stopped by the railroads. After replying to numerous questions, Mr. M'Creia admitted finally that the rebating stopped when the community of interests plan started. He asserted that the shipper was never so facilitated as now.

Mr. M'Creia was asked what he considered a fair method of distribution. He replied: "mines; second, by showing the rating of the book should be open and shipper, but in addition each operator required to notify the of each day the received so that they will show what other employee he with. This system since 1901 west of the of the other gets and thinks he has cause can make it to the."

OFFICIAL WHO ADMITS COAL STOCK GIFT.

Edward Van Wyck Cassatt

Philadelphia, June 8.—A "gentlemen's agreement" between A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and former President S. R. Callaway, of the New York Central, whereby no coal company could get new sidings on one road without the consent of the other, was brought out at the session of the Interstate Commerce Commission here Tuesday.

Contrary to expectations, Mr. Cassatt did not appear before the commission when it resumed its investigation of the alleged connection of railroads with the soft coal and oil interests. Commissioner Clements said the investigation had not reached the stage that demanded the testimony of Mr. Cassatt and he was unable to say whether his appearance would be required by the commission.

The New York Central Railroad, the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railroad and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad were under investigation, the hearings being conducted by Commissioners Clements and Cockrell. The examination of the officials of the New York Central Railroad occupied all of the morning session and a part of the afternoon session.

It developed that no employees or officials of the company held stock in coal mining or oil companies. E. V. W. Rossiter, vice president, testified, however, that the Beech Creek Coal and Coke Company had presented the railroad with five thousand shares of stock, par value $100, "for traffic reasons." Later, when the Beech Creek company was merged into the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Company, this stock was surrendered, the railroad receiving $1,500,000 worth of stock in the latter company.

DID INSURANCE COMPANIES PAY CAMPAIGN COST?

Five New Yorkers Say Jerome Got
$50,000 For That Purpose.

New York, June 8.—The charge, filed against District Attorney Jerome with Governor Higgins, it was learned here Thursday night, were signed by five residents of this city as follows: Chapman Dwight, a retired stock broker; Edward P. White, a member of the produce exchange; ex-Congressman Robert Baker and Joseph Hurley, secretary of the Standard Finance Co.; William N. Amory, a lawyer, and formerly secretary of the Third Avenue Railroad Co.

They declare that Mr. Jerome has wilfully omitted to perform his public duty and that he received $50,000 from the large insurance companies toward his campaign fund last fall. These contributions, it is charged, in received "as a gratuity or reward in the shape of campaign funds to compound a crime and for violation of the criminal statutes of this state, and has agreed that he has obtained in pursuance of a previous agreement or arrangement from the prosecution of sundry criminal actions in violation of section 125 of the penal code and therefore guilty of a felony."

The conference adopted a report prohibiting members from engaging in the sale of gold, silver, gold jewelry, gold watches, diamonds, pearls, ivory, and other articles of value for a period of one year.

STRIKING MINERS ENGAGE IN FIGHT WITH CONSTABULARY

(Bulletin.)
Indiana, Pa., June 8.—The striking miners at Ernest, engaged in a conflict with the state constabulary today. While awaiting the arrival of union organizers the miners paraded through the streets headed by a band. The march led past the barracks when the miners reached this point one discharged his revolver at the barracks. The bullet struck one of the members of the constabulary in the breast. Immediately the constables lined up, and fired one volley into the paraders. Three paraders dropped, fatally injured, while four others escaped with less serious injury. The ranks of the miners were at once broken, all fleeing for safety. Sheriff Wetzel sent two deputies to leaders to arrest the organizers and leaders of the parade.

New York, June 8.—Whelock Harvey, a messenger for the first National Bank, has disappeared and it is reported that he has taken with him cash, checks and drafts amounting to nearly $200,000. The bank officials, however, while admitting Harvey has disappeared with valuable papers and cash asserted that the amount of cash was small and that few of the papers were negotiable. Harvey is only 19 years old and had been in the employ of the bank less than a year. He is a son of Louis W. Harvey, teller in the Chase National bank, and lived with his parents in Brooklyn. He went to work as usual in the morning and during the forenoon was given about 20 drafts and checks for collection. He should have been back in the bank in the ordinary course of events before 1 p. m. When he failed to return the cashier called up by telephone several of the places to which he had been sent. The cashier learned that he had visited several of them and that he had not been to others. He had taken in cash for some of the drafts which he was sent out to collect. The bank officers immediately sent word to the U. S. Guarantee and Trust company and their detectives began a search for Harvey which is still progressing.

The subcommittee is composed of W. J. Bailett, Judge W. W. Morrow, Dr. Devine of the Red Cross, and Benjamin Ide Wheeler, and will be met in the east by Mr. Harriman, the fifth member of the committee. Franklin K. Lane, of this city, who has been in New York for many weeks, is said to have obtained the promise of Wall street financiers to take the bond issue, provided the United States indorses the bonds. The money thus raised is to be used for the rehabilitation and reconstruction of San Francisco.

"HURRAH FOR BRYAN" SAYS WATTERSON

Veteran Editor Comes Out Squarely for the Nebraskan as Presidential Candidate.

Louisville, June 8.—Henry Watterson in today's Courier-Journal under the caption "Hurrah for Bryan" comes out squarely for the Nebraskan as the logical and legitimate candidate of the Democratic party for president in 1908, saying that there is good reason for the belief that long before the assembling of the national Democratic convention of 1908 William Jennings Bryan will be put in nomination by states enough in the separate and several conventions to leave to the larger body only the business of confirming an agreed candidate, the selection of his yoke-mate, and the building of a platform. Mr. Watterson says the Nebraskan is at the best of his powers and that if the party cannot be united upon him, upon whom can they unite?

Mr. Watterson in an interview says that in the campaign of 1908 Mr. Bryan will have no more resolute or faithful supporters than the surviving leaders of the sound money wing of the party of 1896.

Indiana Democrats indorsed William J. Bryan for the presidency and nominated James F. Cox of Columbus, for secretary of state.

Station Agent.

Boonville, Mo., June 8.—The conductor of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas flyer left a five-year-old boy with the station agent here, the boy having been placed in the care of the conductor by a man in San Antonio, Texas, with instructions to put him off at Boonville, Mo., where relatives would meet him. The youngster gave his name as Willis Farris. No relatives have appeared.

The boy is well dressed and has a suit case with plenty of fine clothing. He said his father's name is William Carstean. He talks of living in New York with "Aunt Lizzie." He tells of servants and electric lights, and his prattle indicates that he lived in a home of wealth. It is believed here that the child may have been kidnapped. Every label and mark whereby he could be identified or his home ascertained has been removed from his clothing.

And Immediately Afterward Came the Crash of Railway Collision
In Which He Died.

Atlanta, Ga., June 8.—With a love vow on his lips Oscar Cook met death in a railway collision here. Miss Ivy Lancaster told the story of how Cook died just after he had asked her to be his wife.

"I was on a short seat in the rear end of the last coach with Mr. Cook who had gone with me to the picnic. He was telling me of what he meant to do in life, and that he would never think differently of me. We were not formally engaged, but he said he would wait for me, and I told him that nobody would come between us. Mamma thought we had better wait. In a year he was to ask her again.

"Just what we were saying I don't remember now, but suddenly a blinding light beat in upon the place where we were sitting. 'God,' I heard him cry. He caught me and tried to help me from the seat. Then a crash came I never knew anything else until I came to, as it seemed to me a long time afterward. Everything was blurred. I heard Oscar calling 'Ivy,' and I called back to him, but he never answered, and I was told my lover was dead."

MONT M. MILLER DIED IN WEST

A FORMER NEWARK BONFACER STUMBLES TO SEVERE ILLNESS THURSDAY.

He Left Newark a Number of Years Ago Going to Columbus and Later to Indian Territory.

Hon. William E. Miller of this city received word late Wednesday, while attending the Congressional convention at New Philadelphia, informing him of the death of his brother, Mont M. Miller, now of Quinton, I. T., and formerly of this city.

Mr. Miller had been quite seriously ill at his home in Quinton for some time, however, even considering this fact, the news of his death comes as a sudden shock to his many relatives and friends in this part of the state.

Born in Newark in August of the year 1850, Mr. Miller spent the greater part of his earlier life in and about this city where he was engaged in the manufacture of cigars, being a member of the firm of Tyrer & Miller, which at that time was quite a prominent firm.

On June 4, 1873 he was married to Miss Emma Dale of Delaware, Ohio, with whom he became acquainted while engaged in his occupation there. Shortly after his marriage Mr. Miller embarked in the hotel business and was for nine years the proprietor of the Yearley House in this city. One year ago this month the deceased went to make his home in Quinton, where he was the proprietor of Hotel Miller.

The deceased leaves beside a great number of intimate friends, a wife and two children, Claude and Blanche, two brothers, Hon. W. E. of this city, and J. M. of Columbus, also Mrs. Peter Stief of this city, and Mrs. Charles D. Snider of Washington C. H., Ohio, besides an aged mother, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Snider of Washington C. H.

The remains of Mr. Miller will arrive here tonight on the 9-20 Pan Handle train and will be taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Peter Stief, 104 Paplar avenue. The funeral will be held on Sunday, but at what hour is not known at this writing.

AGREEMENT

Between Operators and Miners Will End Strike in Indiana.

Terra Haute, Ind., June 8.—An agreement which will end the coal strike which has been on in the Eleventh district since April 1, was reached by the scale committee of the Indiana miners and operators. The joint convention of the miners and operators will meet this afternoon to receive the report and make arrangements to sign the agreement. Details of the understanding reached have not been made public, but it is understood the men get the 1903 scale which they demanded when they went out. On their side it is stated they agree to some changes in mining conditions to which the operators objected.

Insurance Inquiry Hurt Business.

Milwaukee, June 8.—An admission that the Union Central Life Insurance Company had suffered because of the investigation of life insurance companies was made by Secretary Marshall at the inquiry. The figures came out in regard to Wisconsin business, which a year ago amounted to $1,763,397, and has been barely increased to $1,900,000 since that time. Figures from the gain and loss exhibit were introduced showing that the cost of new business amounted to less than 45 per cent of the first premiums.

Eight Men Asphyxiated.

Anacosta, Mont., June 8.—One of the most serious accidents in the history of coal mining in Montana has occurred in the mines of the Northern Pacific at Rocky Fork, near Red Lodge, Carbon county. Eight men are dead, all victims of the deadly white damp that filled the corridors of the mine after the fire which started Wednesday. Their bodies have been recovered. Of the dead, two were members of one of the parties that entered the mine in the effort to reach the men known to be there.

It has been learned that C. W. Starrett, who is charged with criminally assaulting his daughter, and who was out on bond, has skipped the country and has gone to Canada, having been seen in Windsor several days ago. The bond, which has been declared forfeited, has been delivered to Auditor Wright, and it is quite likely that the Prosecutor will take immediate steps for its collection.

At the close of the work to night the membership and visiting brethren will be banqueted.

Grand Opening.

There was a grand summer opening of the Palace Rink last night, and in spite of the warm weather was largely attended. The rink was beautifully decorated, and a monstrous military band organ, which is one of the finest made, having cost several thousand dollars. This organ renders thirty of the most popular musical selections of the day. Electric fans have been installed for the pleasure of the skaters, and refreshments are served throughout the evening. Programs have been added which makes it very convenient for the skaters.

Dead 106 Years Old.

Mr. R. S. Sizer of Franklin township, brought to the Advocate office Friday morning a very interesting deed of land patent which is over 100 years old. The deed, which describes a tract of territory lying in Franklin and Madison townships, is made more interesting from the fact that it was written on the skin of a quail and the writing, which is excellent, is well preserved, being as black today as it was the day it was written in 1800. The deed was secured from a man named John on the James Irwin in 1814. James Irwin is Mr. Sizer's great grandfather and the deed was secured when Mr. Sizer's family settled in Licking county in 1816. It has been in the family ever since, together with a number of other old deeds in the deed it is stated that the land mentioned was a part of the tract set aside to the claims for military services in the Revolutionary war.

Hurt Playing Ball.

Ray Tracey, aged 17, a son of W. L. Tracey of this city, sustained a fracture of the bones in the nose in a ball game in South Newark this afternoon. Tracey was in a game when he was struck with a ball.

A Sockless Attorney.

Attorney C. W. Miller, who, with Edward Browne, spent Thursday at Buckeye Lake, had quite an experience. He was engaged in working on Mr. Browne's yacht, when his socks which were hanging on the gunwale of the boat, fell into the water and sank. Mr. Miller was obliged to return home minus his socks, and forcibly reminded one of the late "Sockless" Jerry Simpson. Mr. Miller seems to be peculiarly unfortunate in his trips to Buckeye Lake. Only a short time ago he had his misfortune to fall into the water, ruining a suit of clothes.

An Exciting Runaway.

An exciting runaway occurred Friday afternoon about 1 o'clock. Mr. Thomas Gault of Long Run, had left his horses standing on Third street, near Smith's grocery, while he transacted some business. He had left the team but a few moments when they frightened and ran away. They ran South on Third street, nearly colliding with several vehicles on the street. Upon reaching West Main street they turned up that thoroughfare and dashed into the alley between the Opera House building and Gleichen's furniture store. Here their course was blocked by a team of horses belonging to Perry Combsford, and they were caught by George Gagner. No damage resulted other than the mixing up of some butter, lard and groceries which were in the wagon.

Police Court.

Andi Nicholas, an Italian gang foreman, employed by the B. and O. railroad here, was arrested at Youngstown Thursday on a warrant sworn out by Officer Roberts of the B. and O. and brought to this city where he was lodged in jail on a charge of forgery. It is alleged that he forged the name of Antonio Angotti to a B. and O. pay check which was received by Antonio Decori. Nicholas is only technically guilty of the charge and settled the case by paying the costs and refunding to the representatives of the B. and O. the amount of the order, $3.10. Nicholas is employed as interpreter and when the checks arrived, it was his duty to identify each man under him and if he was unable to indorse the check he was supposed to do this in the presence of witnesses. Angotti, whose name he is charged with forging, was in West Virginia at the time and Decori got the check.

Henry Nugent, who was arrested on complaint of J. R. Harbaugh, on a charge of embezzlement and theft, was bound over to the Common Pleas court by Mayor McCherry. His bond was fixed at $50.

A number of plain drunks drew the usual fines in police court Friday morning.

Several charges were filed against Frank Laird, a South Second street resident, Friday morning in police court when he was arraigned before Mayor McCherry on drunkenness. Laird was picked up by Officers Swank and Callan last night. He pleaded guilty to the drunk charge.

His step son aged about 21, was at the city prison and to a pair of shoes from Laird which he claimed belonged to him. He also stated that Laird sold chickens to his mother. It is stated that he picked up everything loose about the house and sold it. He was about only a few weeks ago. He is now 40 years old.

EXTRAVAGANCE AT WHITE HOUSE

Charge Made by Congressman Brundage of Arkansas.

Washington, June 8.—After a session devoted almost exclusively to the discussion of the conference report on the railroad rate bill, the senate decided to send that measure back to conference. The debate on the bill covered the various questions of free passes, the salaries of the interstate commerce commissioners and the penal provisions of the bill. There were differences of opinion on all these points, but the dominant thought was favorable to sustaining all the senate provisions. Senator Foraker gave notice that he would move to take up the conference report on the statehood bill as soon as the report on the rate bill should be disposed of.

The house listened to a criticism of the president by Mr. Brundage (Ark.), a member of the appropriation committee. Taking the items for the refurbishing of the White House, the care of the grounds and the traveling expenses of the president as his text, Mr. Brundage contrasted the expenses of the last Cleveland administration, the McKinley administration and the administration of Theodore Roosevelt. Mr. Grosvenor (Ohio) championed the appropriations in the name of the American people. The naval appropriation bill was sent to the conference, the conferees on the part of the house being Foss, Illinois, Mr. Loudenslager, N. J., and Mr. Meyer, Louisiana.

Mr. Grosvenor characterized the attack on the president as a relic of antiquity. He said it could have no effect upon the American people. He said if he would attempt by an illustrated lecture to impress upon the people of the old world the absolute domination of the United States, democratic living and the fact that the administration he would take them to the White House, the home of the president, and show them the every day life of the present occupant.

In his address Mr. Brundage said that under the Cleveland administration there was expended for the executive department, including the salary of the president, $1,750,000. Under the McKinley administration, there was expended $1,444,500, while the bill under consideration carries for the executive department, including the care of the White House, green houses, etc., $2,300,000. In addition to this Mr. Brundage said that there were 40 policemen detailed to the care of the White House and grounds and this was an additional $40,000 added, bringing the total to nearly $300,000, which he denominated as extravagance run mad. He said he did not know whether 40 policemen were too few or too many, but he thought a section of the army ought to be detailed for the protection of the person of the president and the care of the grounds. He criticized the item appropriating $25,000 for the traveling expenses of the president and incident thereto said it was probably made for the purpose of providing for a repetition of the "muck rake speech." "As for myself," he said, "and I believe also for a large proportion of the people of this government, we have heard enough of this muck rake nonsense and tomfoolery and we are disgusted with it. No wonder, in view of the present appropriations and present expenditures, no wonder the president should hold up to public ridicule magazines and newspapers of this country and public men and private citizens who dare to criticize."

SORES AND ULCERS TROUBLE-SOME-OFFENSIVE-DANGEROUS

Nothing is more discouraging than to have an unhealthy sore or ulcer resist one treatment after another, sometimes scabbing over and apparently getting well, then returning with renewed energy and becoming worse than before. Sores and ulcers are not due to outside causes; if they were, salves, plasters, lotions, etc., would cure them. They are kept up by a diseased and polluted condition of the blood brought on by the absorption of refuse and waste matters of the body into this vital fluid. These accumulations find their way into the blood, usually because of an inactive and sluggish condition of the system. Nature intends that they shall be carried off through the usual channels of waste, but the different members failing to perform their duties properly leave the matter to sour and ferment. The blood then, in its effort to keep the system healthy, absorbs these poisons and at the first bruise, cut or wound the sore is formed, and the constant drainage of foul matter through it keeps the place open and irritated so it cannot heal. Another cause for old sores and ulcers is the poisoning or weakening of the blood from the remains of some constitutional trouble or the effects of a long spell of sickness. S. S. S. begins at the fountain head and drives out all poisonous matter and germs, and makes a lasting cure. As soon as the system gets under the influence of S. S. S. the inflammation gradually leaves, the flesh takes on a healthy color, and soon the place is permanently healed. Book on sores and ulcers and any medical advice without charge.

Democratic Congressional Ticket.

For Congress,
WILLIAM A. ASHBROOK,
Of Licking County.

Democratic County Ticket.

For Sheriff,
WILLIAM LINKE.

County Clerk,
J. W. HURSEY.

County Commissioner,
GEORGE T. TAVENER.

Infantry Director,
B. D. JACKSON.

WM. A. ASHBROOK.

In the Democratic congressional convention at New Philadelphia Friday, William A. Ashbrook of Licking county, was nominated on the 277th ballot thus bringing to an end one of the most notable conventions in the history of the Seventeenth district.

The work of the New Philadelphia convention is particularly gratifying to the people of Licking county, as it is a recognition not only of the fitness of Mr. Ashbrook, but of the just claims of Licking county. It had been many years since this county had been given the nomination and now that the honor has come to us, it is pleasing to know that it has been bestowed upon a man who is in every way worthy.

William A. Ashbrook headed the county ticket a year ago and was elected by a handsome majority to represent this county in the State Legislature. As a representative in the recent session of the General Assembly of Ohio he made a splendid record.

For years Mr. Ashbrook has been publisher of the Johnstown Independent and for two years he has held the office of secretary of the National Editorial Association.

The nomination of Mr. Ashbrook will inspire the Democracy of Licking county, for he possesses the natural qualifications of a leader and with his personality he has those characteristics that attract men. Whole souled, energetic, popular and alert, he has a mind capable of wrestling with the problems of a campaign and an intellect that will be felt in the National legislative hall.

The Advocate congratulates Mr. Ashbrook, the convention which nominated him, the Licking county delegates who remained loyal to him and also congratulates the people of the Seventeenth district who will have the privilege of voting for him.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

There appears little doubt that Ohio Democrats in their state convention this year will endorse William J. Bryan for President and put their state perhaps first in the field of important states among those that will formally approve the general movement which now seems to be starting in the direction of the Nebraskan. A few weeks ago the leaders of the party in this state were not seriously considering the indorsement of any Presidential candidate. They thought it too early to look so far ahead.

But, as is often the case, the leaders, instead of leading, were somewhat behind the people. The latter have spoken through numerous Democratic county conventions in Ohio, and it is now assured that the indorsement of Bryan in the state convention will be forthcoming, no matter what the leaders thing about it now or will think about it then. The name of Bryan was cheered to the echo in the Congressional convention at New Philadelphia Thursday and the cheering was started by a Newark man.

The Ohio Democracy will send many representatives to the great Madison Square demonstration in New York City in welcome to Mr. Bryan on his return from his trip around the world. That will be the formal beginning of the national movement for his nomination, but it will not indicate a greater loyalty or significance than has been already shown in the small political gatherings of Ohio during the past few weeks. This being the case, it may not be difficult to persuade Mr. Bryan to linger long enough in Ohio on his journey from New York to Lincoln, to receive a formal ovation here. It is understood that this is being seriously contemplated and that it will be "put up" to the Democratic leader as soon as he reaches New York.

The South Dakota Democratic convention which was held June 7, is the latest to indorse Bryan for the Presidency in 1908, and today Col. Watterson of the Louisville Courier-Journal is out with an article favoring Col. Bryan's nomination.

Referring to the Democratic drift to Bryan, Thursday night's Columbus Dispatch after pointing to action of the party leaders in Missouri, Indiana and Arkansas favoring the Nebraskan adds:

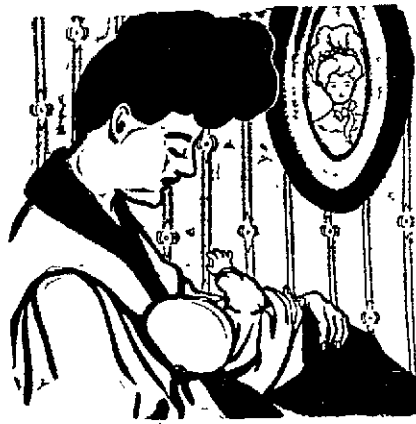

"The Bryan sentiment is this year not only spontaneous, but practically unopposed within the Democratic ranks. No other man has yet loomed up into the prominence of respectable rivalry. It is true that the nomination will not be made for two years yet, but it is also true that there is among prominent Democrats none who is at all likely to find the favor that Mr. Bryan had with the masses of his party immediately after his last defeat. Since then his party following has increased surprisingly; and unless all signs fail, it will be Bryan for whom the next Democratic national convention will call and it will be a more powerful Bryan than ever before that the Republicans will face in the next presidential election."

THE NURSING MOTHER

She Needs Food Especially Adapted to Herself and Baby—A Pure Food Easily Digested.

The Results of What She Eats Are Show in Her Offspring.

We often meet youngsters whose pimply or blotchy skins tell a story of improper nourishment—of greasy foods, vegetables not properly cooked, and poor bread.

These conditions exist because enough care is not taken in the selection of diet by the nursing mother.

Only those foods that can meet all the requirements of both mother and child should be eaten, and the simpler they are the better.

Hardyfood is the ideal food for both mother and child at all times.

It is a brain, nerve, bone and muscle builder, easily digested, and its wastes are rapidly eliminated from the system.

It is the best food for children at any age, especially the growing and school age.

It is pleasing to the taste, and eaten with milk or fruits will sustain the person indefinitely without other nourishment.

It is all ready to eat from the package, but can be cooked again or prepared in many ways.

Hardyfood is an economical food, as a 10-cent package contains enough for 10 to 15 meals, a cost of less than a cent a meal.

If you have never eaten Hardyfood you have a food lesson to learn. Put it on your table at once.

All grocers—10 cents.

JUDGE'S OPINION OF DICKERSON

Says Ben Is Guilty and the Truth Should Be Told About Him, Even If It Hurts.

Coshocton, O., June 8.—There was an interesting colloquy on the street Thursday morning between Attorney John C. Adams and Judge Easton, the attorney took the judge to task for giving Ben Dickerson a scathing lecture from the bench before sentencing him.

"The death sentence is the most severe punishment a human can get," said the attorney to the judge, "without saying it in a scathing denunciation."

But Judge Easton stood by his guns. "Ben Dickerson is guilty of that crime, of that I am convinced," he declared, "and the truth is never out of the way. We said nothing on the bench that was not the truth, and we stand by every word of it. Sometimes the truth hurts, but it is a good thing to stick to."

BEVARD TRIAL IS SET FOR JUNE 11

SEVENTY-FIVE WITNESSES HAVE BEEN SUBPOENAED IN THE MURDER CASE.

Grubbs Case Heard in Probate—Business in Common Pleas—Court House Notes.

The case of the State of Ohio vs. Levi Bevard, charged with the murder of Mrs. Frances Wertz at her home on Itamp creek, a few miles north of the city, on the night of June 1, one year ago, is set for trial on Monday of next week. Thus far about 75 witnesses have been subpoenaed on the case.

In Common Pleas. Rosa Bevard vs. Jackson Wertz et al, an action in partition. Decree in favor of Thomas Maberry. Smythe & Smythe; J. B. Jones, Black, Norpell & Norpell.

George P. Webb, receiver vs. A. J. Lavin et al, leave given judgment creditors to be made parties defendant. Webb; Kibler & Montgomery. J. B. Jones, Daugherty, Martin. James E. Christian vs. W. T. Wiley, demurrer not overruled; leaves to answer. Russell, Sparks, Fitzgibbon; Kibler & Montgomery.

Ohio vs. Grubbs.

The case of the State of Ohio vs. Frank Grubbs was heard by the Probate court on Friday morning. The defendant was charged with committing an assault and battery on Mary Stump, about nine years old. The prosecution grew out of a neighborhood quarrel between the respective families, and it is alleged that Grubbs interfered on behalf of his children and struck the little Stump girl. A number of witnesses were examined, and the case was ably argued for the State by J. R. Fitzgibbon and for the defense by J. V. Hilliard. The defendant stoutly denied his guilt, but he was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $5 and the costs.

Demurrer Filed.

In the case of Abel J. Wilson, an administrator of the estate of Mary Kirkpatrick, deceased, vs. Margaret A. Hill, the defendant has filed a demurrer to the amended petition of plaintiff on the following grounds:

First. That the plaintiff has no legal capacity to sue.

Second. That there is a defect of party plaintiff.

Third. That the plaintiff has no legal or equitable interest in the subject matter of the action.

Fourth. That the amended petition does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Defendant therefore prays judgment.

A demurrer have also been filed to the answer and cross-petition of Robinson Johnson.

Kibler & Montgomery, attorneys for Mrs. Hill.

Court House Notes.

An order was issued by the Probate court to sell all the personal property of the late William Root at private sale.

He therefore asks that plaintiff's petition be dismissed and that he go hence with his costs. Carl Norpell, attorney for Edward L. Weisgerber.

Captain W. H. Knauss, Assistant Surgeon, Also Arrived in Newark With Local Troops.

The Fourth regiment, O. N. G., which was called to Dillonville, near Steubenville, together with other troops, on Monday, broke camp on Thursday night and left for Columbus in fifteen freight cars. The train passed through Newark about 2:30 o'clock Friday, and Company G was the first company to disembark. Dr. Knauss, who was with the soldiers says that the utmost good feeling prevailed among the natives and soldiers, and that no trouble whatever occurred. Gen. Spears, in command of the remaining troops who are guarding the mines, expects to be ordered home before Sunday. He says that no trouble whatever is anticipated and thinks that Adjutant General Hughes will order the soldiers to break camp by Saturday night. The Stocking for the Strenuous Boy

"CADET" Is the name. A name growing in renown and respected in stocking circles. They are scientifically made strongest in parts where they should be, but no part too strong for a weaker part, so that when the strain comes the weak parts rip. No, the strength in Cadets is equally balanced that's why they are rip proof.

Irish linen is put into the knees, heels and toes and that's why they are hole proof. They will eventually wear out of course, but they are as liable to be out-grown first.

They are made in three weights.

The extra heavy ribbed for the strenuous boy.

The medium, a more dressy stocking and the fine Lisle light weight for girls. This quality is also made in pure white. They cost no more than others, but wear 25c Pair two times as long

EVERY PAIR IS GUARANTEED TO WEAR: by this we mean if they do not outwear any other two pair of stockings you have ever bought, bring them back and we will give you another pair free of cost.

FORTY-NINE DIPLOMAS GIVEN TO 49TH GRADUATING CLASS

Of the Newark High School at Commencement Exercises Thursday Evening by President Frank L. Beggs-- President W. O. Thompson of O. S. U. Delivers Address.

A large audience greeted the speakers at the graduating exercises at the Auditorium Thursday evening, and listened attentively to the address of Dr. W. O. Thompson of Ohio State University.

Prof. J. D. Simkins, superintendent of the schools, introduced the speaker with a few remarks referring to the early life of Dr. Thompson, calling attention to the fact that the greater part of that gentleman's life was spent in Lackawanna county.

The program of the evening follows:
Music—"Merry June".....Vincent High School Glee Club.
Invocation.....Rev. L. C. Sparks
Music—"The Stars Beyond the Cloud".....Tours High School Glee Club.

Address.....Dr. W. O. Thompson President of Ohio State University.
Music—"Blow Soft Winds".....Vincent High School Glee Club.
Presentation of Diplomas.
Mr. Frank L. Beggs, President Board of Education.

Benediction.....
Dr. Thompson's address was very able and sprinkled with enough of the lighter vein to relieve the danger of monotony which is so likely to prevail on such occasions. In the first part of his remarks, the speaker referred to the introductory speech of the Superintendent in which he stated that one-fourth of the people's money goes to the public schools. Dr. Thompson said that from every standpoint the public schools represented the third of the revenue of the people.

In substance, the speaker dwelt upon the fact that the one great advantage is eliminated from the question of education.

He spoke of the changes in the studies in the local school and the addition of some which are called for by unthinking people, when in reality our present system of education is not thorough enough. He further spoke of the home environment as related to the schools and advised the introduction of an additional year of kindergarten work, and in very complimentary terms spoke of the manual training as being introduced in the Newark schools, by Prof. W. E. Painter.

Possibly the most needed reform, and one which is being adopted quite extensively was advised by Mr. Beggs, the use of free text books, noting that the books could be obtained much cheaper by the boards than by individuals and thus save a great amount of trouble and humiliation to those less able of the parents of the children.

At the conclusion of these remarks the presentation of diplomas was made to the following graduates:

Latin—Emma Rose Kamerer, Lillian F. Keller, Miles Ludlow Wright, Sarah Lillian Mehl, Helen Louise Abbott, Bertha Lois Crilly, Julian Starnbery, Bessie W. Taatel, Amy Belle Alsapach, Elizabeth B. Jones, Florence Hershberger, Ruth Elizabeth Allen, Pearl Bricker Mercer, Mary Louise Rank, Inez Fately.

English—Stanley Dorsey, Harry Leonard Miller, Henry Lawrence Beecher, Laura May Jones, Florence Ethel Jones, Eva Kirk Shaw, Anna Elizabeth Robinson, Ethel Stewart Edwards, Grace Carolyn Platt, Earle B. Alsapach, Grover F. Hart, Jay W. MacFarland, Stanley F. Stater, Eula J. Hansberger.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

MATILDA BORMAN

MYRTLE MILLS

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I am but fifteen years of age, and depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice to girls in my condition, I am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

The Molders turned a pretty trick yesterday afternoon when they defeated the Lancaster team in a clean cut victory, the score being 4 to 1 when the game closed in the first half of the ninth inning. It was a pretty battle. Both pitchers worked nicely and only one man walked. This came when Locke threw out wide ones to Abbott with Catcher Kunkle on second base.

It was to be regretted that a large crowd did not witness the game for the fans of Newark are still a little dissatisfied with the fact that the Newark team is six or eight games behind in their average. It was the fastest game played this season. It was the cleanest game played this season and both pitchers worked as no two pitchers have worked this year. The fans were de-lighted to say the least.

It was Abbott in the first inning that took the starch out of the Newark bunch by getting to first on Danny Davis' error. Fred Heller, a handy man with the stick, neatly sacrificed his old team mate to second. Locke's infield bingle sent Abbott to third and Elston's safety to center let Abbott score. Abbott was the only man on the Lancaster pay-roll who was able to cross the rubber plate, guarded by Walter Snodgrass. It looked very much like George Upp was going to let the local bunch down with the record for few hits.

games here. Until the fifth, Snodgrass was the only man who was able to cop out a hit. He singled in the fourth. But that fifth it was enough to make Upp's hair turn gray with night. Danny Davis, the great shortstop, started the bombardment of Locke's mound and Winters' hit followed. The White Sox's sacrifice hit, scored Davis. Winters was thrown out at third on Reagan's hit and Locke was induced to let on three singles, forcing the side with one run.

In the sixth, Upp did some clever work, and retired Newark's bats as the third time out. But that seventh it was a matter of time before the performance of the White Sox's great pitcher, Drake, hit one over the fence. The hit was charged to the home run. It went and scored on the hit. In the eighth, Drake hit one over the fence, forcing the side with one run. In the ninth, Drake hit one over the fence, forcing the side with one run.

called upon to rescue the team from what might be turned into a defeat. He was right there with the stick and his single went into Out Elston's meadows. It was Reagan again who called upon to stop the game away late in the Newark pocket. And his single went to right field. Out Elston fozzled the hit and the ball went to the fence again, just as it did in the first game with the Lancaster bunch here. Everybody was running when Out missed the ball and when the smoke cleared up Newark was three runs and four hits to the good of the inning's play. Reagan was thrown out at third on Elston's and Humphreys' assist and Locke struck out again. Bralley singled in the eighth after two were down, but Drake hit another fly to the shortstop.

The fielders on both teams played regular circus ball. The sporting writers started to keep track of the sensational plays of the game and it looked like this: "Raffis, Drake, Raffis, Gygli, Drake, Raffis, Raffis, Drake." In the first inning, Davis sent a line-drive to Raffis and he picked it up, though it was smoking. Elston lifted one just over Reagan's head and Drake ran in and picked it up out of the dust. Raffis dropped another of the same kind in Drake's garden in the fourth, and again Drake was there and picked it away from his shoestrings. In the fifth Abbott and Heller each sent long flies that looked safe, to Drake's garden, but he pulled 'em down. In the sixth, Elston hit a ball which scraped a lot of the blue out of the heavens. It went almost straight up over the home-plate. It seemed like everybody was going to sleep but Reagan, and he ran past Winters, Locke and into Snodgrass' territory to catch the ball. In the sixth, Snyder hit a grounder which bounced but once, but it looked like it was going over Bill Raffis' head. He stabbed it with his glove and again the Newark hopes sunk. With Gygli on second and Humphreys at first, Locke put them swift and true over the plate and Upp was fouled. It was a pretty game and the fastest ever played on the White Park grounds. Newark won and the fans were satisfied. Score:

JOE DOYLE SIGNS WITH ZANESVILLE

Former Newark Catcher Played With Zanesville at Wehrle Park
This Afternoon.

Dear Fans—How would you like to see our friend, Joe Doyle, in a Mogul uniform. That is just what a few hundred of the loyal enthusiasts in Newark saw at Wehrle park this afternoon. Manager Fred Dittum, who has been looking for a catcher to relieve Lauson occasion, iv, completed arrangements Thursday morning to sign the popular Newark catcher. In the afternoon game at Zanesville, when Mansfield played, Lauson was injured in the last inning. He got his finger split in taking a foul tip from Catcher Fox's bat. Doyle was ordered to report for the Friday game at Wehrle park. In all probability Doyle will be added to the Zanesville pay roll as extra catcher.

COACH STANTON HAS RESIGNED

ATHLETIC INSTRUCTOR AT DENISON
WILL STUDY LAW DURING NEXT YEAR.

Brought Denison Out of Athletic Oblivion and Put Her Athletics on a Firm Basis.

The announcement is made at Granville that Frank L. Stanton, coach of Denison, who has been in Granville in that capacity for the past three years, has resigned his position as athletic instructor. The announcement occasioned much surprise and many expressions of regret were heard when it became known that the popular coach was to sever his connections with the school.

COACH DENISON UNIVERSITY
Who has resigned to continue the study of law.

For a number of years Denison had not been recognized among the colleges of the state as a formidable school in athletics until Coach Stanton took hold of the athletics there three years ago. Then the school came to the front and for two years its baseball, football and track teams have stepped right to the front.

Coach Stanton is a graduate of Bucknell university, where he was a great figure in athletics. He was prominent on the football and baseball fields. In his baseball career he served as catcher and during a part of the time he played that position he caught the famous pitcher, Christy Mathewson, now of the New York Giants.

Coach Stanton stated that he gave up his position at Denison because he expected to spend the next year in the pursuit of his law studies and that he would give up coaching with the possible exception of football this fall. In case he continues the work of football coach he will get in that capacity for some school, where all his time is not taken up with athletics. Mr. Stanton has but one more year of law before he will be ready for examination.

Coach Stanton has the best wishes of a host of Granville friends. Many Newark friends who have become acquainted with him in his athletic work also wish him success in anything he may take up.

President Hunt, interviewed by the Advocate, stated that Coach Stanton's resignation was voluntary and that it was with regret that it was accepted. He stated that several applications had already been received for the position, but that no action had been taken. There will be a meeting on next Tuesday when the matter will probably be taken up. It is understood that an application from Baltimore and one from the South have been received.

It is reported that the effort is being made to secure the services of F. W. Whitely, a graduate of Denison, who has been known to the former students as "Pete" Whitely. He is occupying the position of clerk of the police board in Dayton, O.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE HAS BEEN LAUNCHED

Seven Teams in Organization Which Will Play Three Games Each Week—The Schedule.

At a meeting held Thursday night at the office of Director Ludwig of the Y. M. C. A., the arrangements for the launching of the new Twilight league were made. Seven teams have entered the league and the prospects are that the eighth will be added in a few days. Managers representing the Plumbers, Clothing Clerks, Bankers, Shoe Clerks, Hardware Clerks, Doctors and Newspaper Employees, met with Mr. Ludwig at the Y. M. C. A. building. It was decided to play games each Monday, Tuesday and Friday evening. Messrs. Eagle and Crilly were appointed to draft a schedule and they will meet Monday for that purpose. The following games will be played next week: Monday—Clothing Clerks vs. Shoe Clerks; Tuesday—Hardware Clerks vs. Plumbers; Friday—Newspaper Employees vs. Bankers.

SHORTSTOP "NIG" PERRINE IS WORTH A FORTUNE.

Toledo, O., June 8.—"Nig" Perrine, the Kansas City shortstop, is afflicted with the inheritance habit, and has more money than a lot of baseball magnates who are running baseball plants and paying enormous salaries.

"Nig" is not only one of the youngest players in the league and one of the smallest, but he is one of the wealthiest as well.

Before the season opened the diminutive shortstop inherited $20,000, while a month later another healthy lad came his way. Recently one more fair-sized fortune bumped into his and, according to Jimmy Burke, the manager and captain of the Kansas City club, Perrine is worth $60,000.

And he plays ball simply because he loves the sport.
If you were not in on the know, you would not suspect that "Nig" was worth anything except on salary day, for his clothes are not as loud as the noise that comes from the environment of a rolling mill, while no sparkling diamond makes an ar light of his hand.

Pugilists Held.
New York, June 8.—Terry McGovern and Jimmy Britt, the pugilists, Harry Pollock, manager of the Twentieth Century Athletic club, and Tim Hurst, who refereed the bout between McGovern and Britt before the Twentieth Century club, about two weeks ago, were held for trial in the court of special sessions by Magistrate Brown. They are charged with violating that section of the penal code relating to prize fighting. Bail was fixed at $500 in each case. Twelve others persons, including fighters, waiters and ticket sellers, also were held for trial on a similar charge.

COMMENCEMENT AT GRANVILLE FIFTEEN HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Eight Oration Were Delivered and the Exercises Were Enjoyed by a Large Audience in the Granville Opera House Thursday Evening.

Granville, O., June 8.—On Thursday evening the annual commencement exercises of the Granville High School was held in the Opera House, which was crowded with eager friends and relatives of the young people who were marking the first important crisis in their career. There are this year fifteen graduates, a number which speaks wonderfully well for the care and supervision of a teaching faculty who have been able to keep together a class so large proportionately to the total enrollment of the schools. The fact that a large percentage of these graduates will next year continue their education at Denison or elsewhere, emphasizes the high ideal that has been held before them during their high school training.

Superintendent L. W. McKinnon, who is just completing his first year's work in Granville, deserves great commendation for the vigorous interest that he has infused into the life of the school. No less credit is due Miss Flora Hoover, the efficient principal, who, for a number of years has contributed to the life of Granville's schools the sincerest efforts and deepest sympathies of a broad and cultured mind and intellect.

The commencement on Thursday evening was the yearly recurrence of a drama in which the scenes remain unchanged, but the actors are always new; and the players are, after all, the life of the play. The rising of the curtain on the dainty gowns, the bright faces and the beauty of the floral decorations, meant for these fifteen young men and women the rising of the curtain on the second act of life's drama; and now that diplomas are given, the curtain falls, and the lights all out, the act is well begun.

They have been ushered into the broad paths of a busy world to work out their own destinies. The thoughts and actions which mould the intellect, and lead us up to what the future may have in store for us are grounded upon the foundation laid in these youthful years of school duties, labor and study. How eventful, then, the time when that apprenticeship is ended, and each is left to travel his or her own particular way, and we believe that the fifteen bright young men and women who graduated Thursday night are endowed with sufficient determination, natural ability and forcefulness to succeed in whatever station or position they may find themselves.

These annual commencements are occasions when the seating capacity of the Opera House is too small. It shows the wholesome interest taken by the people of Granville in the good work of education, and is a mighty stimulus to the splendid corps of teachers as an evidence of their good work as well as to future classes to make an effort to do their best.

The members of the Senior class this year is composed of the following named persons: Max Aid, Adah Avery, Harold Barnes, Bessie Channell, Evangeline Davies, Howard Ford, Abbie Geach, Frances Killgallon, Ruth James, Betty Jones, Dwight Owens, Dee Thornton, Bessie Watkins, Lizzie Williams, Alice Wright. Of these the class chose eight speakers.

The stage was prettily and tastefully decorated with potted plants and flowers, and with the members seated in a half circle, presented a beautiful appearance.

Promptly at the appointed hour Superintendent McKinnon called the large audience to order, when the following program, interspersed with fine music furnished by the Newark Auditorium orchestra, was carried out:

Invocation.
The Peculiarities of Dr. Samuel Johnson—"Ruth James."
"Experience a Teacher"—Max Aid.
"Famous Literary Friendship"—Abbie Geach.

"Parasites"—Alice Wright.
"Roads"—Dwight Owen.
"Westward the Course of Empire Takes Its Way"—Frances Killgallon.
"The Ideal"—Howard Ford.
Presentation of Diplomas.

Benediction.
The eight members of the class who had been chosen as speakers, all did splendidly and showed thorough preparation for this, one of the important events of their lives, and we would be doing them all an injustice were we to attempt to speak in terms of the performance of one than another member of the class in the past performance.

The first speaker, Miss Ruth James, who received the second honor class for her subject "The Peculiarities of Dr. Samuel Johnson." She spoke of the various forms of peculiarities, a combination of which would be a characterization of Dr. Johnson. A pointed description of the great literary man followed and incidents were related concerning the vagaries that have helped make him famous. The good traits in his character were brought out, and his affection for his mother portrayed in detail. Some of his mental peculiarities were mentioned, and a description of his powers as a writer and conversationalist given. The speaker closing with reference to him as the sage of the 18th century whose memory keeps alive his works.

Mr. Max Aid followed his production being entitled, "Experience, a Teacher." He spoke of the many-sidedness of the world as a school of experience, and the necessity for the study of its varied lessons. The self-made man was described, and his weakness pointed out, it being explained that the very fact of his success was sometimes an element of failure, in that he refused to learn from the experience of others. The fact that men in business must deal with their fellows was brought out, and the value of right dealing impressed. The importance of experience and observation was impressed, a wide, far-reaching, close-observing outlook over the world being the labor, joy and crown of our lives.

Miss Abbie Geach spoke on "Famous Literary Friendships," basing her work on a quotation from Kingsley. She took as examples the close relation existing between various writers. Among them Wordsworth and Coleridge, who had such remarkable influence over the lives of each other. The association of Addison and Steele in the publication of the Spectator was another example quoted, as well as the friendship between Tennyson and Arthur Henry Hallam, the famous "In Memoriam" of the poet laureate being a tribute to the latter writer. The speaker closed with a description of the friendship and married life of the Browns, paying tribute to the work and character of both.

The orchestra played a selection, and then Miss Alice Wright spoke on the subject of "Parasites." She first described these peculiar botanical specimens, and then proceeded to draw comparisons between these plants and certain classes of people.

Where the Good and Stylish Clothes are Sold.

Those to whom Dame Fashion is a host were described, and their folly commented upon. The public as a host for the grafters and swindlers of the present day was portrayed, and attention called to those people of different habits requiring support, moral or physical. James Boswell was taken as a characteristic type of the parasite and some account of his life was given.

Mr. Dwight Owen discussed the topic of "Good Roads," first briefly summarizing their benefits. Some history of the early road builders was given, and the decay of their works described. The early effort at the construction of highways in this country was sketched, and a fuller description of our famous National Road presented. Some of the essentials of modern road building were named, and the attitude of Ohio on this topic discussed. He closed with an apt motto for the student of the nations of the future, "By their roads ye shall know them."

For her subject Miss Frances Killgallon took the famous words of Bishop Berkeley, "Westward the Course of Empire takes its Way." The speaker began with a description of a well known painting, showing a party of emigrants crossing the Rockies. She traced the historical development of the New World, showing the westward movement of the tide of civilization. The varied conditions of life have developed in the West a new type of American manhood, destined some day to become dominant in national affairs. As a prophesy for the future the words of a famous statesman were quoted, when standing on one of the mountain peaks of Colorado, he said, "I am listening to the oncoming millions."

Following another musical selection, Mr. Howard Ford spoke on "The Ideal." The wisdom of nature in the distribution of her treasures, and the necessity for success in every phase of creation, point to the necessity of an ideal, to which our aims may be directed. Our striving after perfection makes us nobler and better, and in this we have the chief value of the ideal. Some of our various standards of excellence were discussed, and the conclusion drawn that there is but one ideal capable of inspiration for all, the Messiah, the true ideal.

The first honor of the class was awarded to Miss Betty Jones, and she occupied the last place on the program her subject being "The Mission of Robert Burns." His humble condition in life was related, and its effect on his writings pointed out. The love of nature that so marks his writing and the patriotism that they breathe all have had their effect on the people of Scotland, enhancing some of their famous virtues. The peculiar intensity of his nature, and his interest in the world made Burns the greatest songwriter the world has ever known, and these songs he has left as a monument to his memory. They are the songs Carlyle has in mind when he said "Burns was a true poet—the most precious gift that can be bestowed on a generation."

The citizens of Granville may well feel proud of our schools and the splendid work done by all the instructors, as well as the good management by the board of education. The Granville schools were never in better condition, and every support and encouragement should be given them.
